The Door Of Returning

Isaiah 55:7: “Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him, and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.”

Let the wicked forsake their ways and the unrighteous
Let them turn to the Lord, and he will have mercy and to our God, for he will freely pardon

RETURNING BEGINS WITH REALITY

LORD

LATER

NO!

“Return to Me.”

GOD'S HEART
RETURNING

Isaiah 55:7 says:
“He will have mercy on him...
and He will abundantly pardon.”

Abundantly.

Isaiah 55:7

He will have mercy on him...

and He will abundantly pardon.

God is ready to pardon
and restore,
giving you
a fresh start.

God is not holding your failure over your head —
He's holding the door open wide.

WHAT
REALLY MEANS

“Let the wicked
forsake his way,
and the
unrighteous man his thoughts.”

“Let the wicked
un
ma
tho

A shift of direction.
A whisper that says,
“God... I need You again.”

WHY
THIS MOMENT MATTERS

MOMENTS
THAT MATTER

MOMENT
MATTERS

“Lord, I return to You.”

THAT MATTER

THE GOD WHO OPENS THE DOOR

“Let him return... and God will abundantly
pardon.”

THE GOD WHO
Return to prayer. HO
Return to worship. FOR Return to Scripture.
Return to stillness.
Return to your calling. rn
Return to who you used to be before life made you tired. undantly
Return to the God who has not moved from

“Lord, I return to You.
My heart returns.
My thoughts return.
My spirit returns.
And You receive me with mercy.
Amen.”
