A Prayer of Consecration

Dear Father, we come before You with humble hearts.

We consecrate this building as Elim Freedom Church—a sanctuary for worship, a house of healing, a refuge for the lost, and a wellspring of hope for the broken.

May Your presence dwell here, filling every corner with Your peace and power.

May every person who enters these doors encounter Your love and find freedom in Christ.

Lord, make us bold witnesses of Your grace, and let this church shine as a beacon of light in our community.

We set this church and ourselves apart for Your holy purpose.
Amen.

The Lord is calling us to be intentional, to actively seek out those in need of freedom, and to be a bridge of love and hope in our community.

The background of the image is a landscape with rolling hills under a sunset sky. In the foreground, three crosses are visible on a hillside. The text is overlaid on this scene.

The Lord is calling us to be intentional, to actively seek out those in need of freedom, and to be a bridge of love and hope in our community.

As part of Elim Freedom Church, you are called to live in freedom and share that freedom with others. Every hand you shake, every conversation you have, and every prayer you pray is an opportunity to minister God's love and healing.
